

INVITING EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

FOR

Graphic Designers: To design NAIDOC t-shirts and Re-branding TIS name with Aboriginal Art & Messages

Geraldton Regional Aboriginal Medical Service (GRAMS) of Western Australia is seeking offers to design t-shirts' artwork with Aboriginal art and/or messages for NAIDOC Week, high-lighting 2025 theme: "Next Generation: Strength, Vision & Legacy." And re-branding of Tackling Indigenous Smoking (TIS) name to embrace the Murchison region/ Yamatji Aboriginal culture.

GRAMS operates across five (5) sites: Geraldton Main Clinic (Rifle range road), Transition Care Program team (Holland St), Mt Magnet Clinic, Gascoyne Outreach Service (GOS) Clinic and GRAMS Perth office.

To have a chance to be a short-listed:

- You will have demonstrated ability, having designed t-shirts with Aboriginal art or messages with a "Wow appeal" at first glance and appropriate to the Yamatji people of the Murchison region of Western Australia.
- Must have Australian Business Number

Specifying:

1. Turnaround time from date of request.
2. Fee for Service or offer range.
3. Your contact phone number
4. Your Australian Business Number (ABN) &
5. Samples of previous works or link to website show-casing proven own work and provide samples by Deadline.

Please submit your written offer to:

- Brent Walker on (08) 9956 6555 or email brent.walker@grams.asn.au
- Davies Chibale on (08) 9956 6555 extension 612 or 9504 or email: davies.chibale@grams.asn.au

Deadline for submission: 4pm, Friday 11th April 2025 Western Australian Standard time.

Judging Panel:

Your T-shirt Artwork sample will be subjected to a Judging Panel to include CEOs or delegates of partner organizations: City of Geraldton, Yamatji Yard, Bundiyarra, GRAMS, South Yarmatji, Art Centre, to name but a few.